William Rudolph Slides Sixty Feet Down a Frail Electric Light Wire

from Roof of City Jail.

(IN THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

ST. LOPIS, July &—William Rudolph of Union, Mo., who has been confined in the City Jail for several months on the charge of having participated in the robbery of the bank at Union last winter, and who is also charged with killing Detective Schumacher, who was attempting to arrest him, made a desperate and successful escape from jail at 4:45 p.m. today, and is still at large. Shortly before his escape today Rudolph was let out of his cell to be shaved. The exercise corridor at the time contained about twenty prisoners. The guards were engaged in locking up the prisoners for the night, when as Rudolph passed through the east end of the exercise corridor, a fight broke out among the prisoners in the west end. The majority of the guards ran to separate the fighting prisoners, and Rudolph quickly ran up three fights of stairs, jumped to the top of the cells, and in a flash had swung himself by the aid of an iron girder to the skylight and the next moment had forced the skylight open and was out upon the roof, sixty feet from the ground.

Rudolph grasped an electric-light from Roof of City Jail.

His Holiness Arises Early After a ·Sleep Induced by Chloral.

Although the Pontiff's Strength is at the Lowest His Mind is Still Remarkably Clear-Asks the Physicians to Tell Him When the Last Hour Really Comes-Melancholy Scenes in the Vatican.

ONDON, July 7 .- [By Atlantic Cable.] A special dispatch from Rome says that at 7 o'clock this morning the condition of the Pope was unchanged. His Holiness, in the early hours of the morning, awoke and took some soup. When he is not asleep he is perfectly lucid and calm. He has asked that he be told the moment the danger becomes imminent.

A cabinet council, the dispatch adds, has been summoned for this morning to consider the steps to be taken by the government in the event of the Pope's death.

ROME, July 7, 9:30 a.m.—The pneumonia from which the Pope is suffering is now complicated with pleurisy and the Pontiff's fingers are paralyzed.

Rome, July 7, 3:55 a.m.—(By Atlantic Cable.) Another morning has broken on the pathetic scene within the simple chamber of the Vatican where Pope Leo lies dying. As the soft light of dawn penetrated into the room, the Pontiff whispered to his devoted physical the desired the shutters of

PSPECIAL ANNOUNCYMENT—

ISIT TO HEMET—will Fleast you it you are taking for any account of the containing the c words he now and then succeeds in uttering. The scene is so touching that those present can scarce restrain their tears. Count Camillo Peoci, the Pope's nephew, whom the dying man kept by his bedside yesterday, was so exhausted late last night by his contending emotions that he had to be taken from his uncle's room, completely worn out. A few minutes before, as he stood bowed beside the bed, Pope Leo laid his hand on his head with paternal affection, stying: "Take courage."

Shortly after 10 o'clock at night the Pontiff received the extreme unction.

Shortly after 10 o'clock at night the Pontiff received the extreme unction. At 9 o'clock his condition seemed so hopeless that only a short time apparently remained before he would glide into his last sleep. At Dr. Lapponi's initiative, a hasty consultation of the Pope's relatives. Cardinal Rampolla and other ecclesiastics was held, and it was decided that extreme unction should be given. The Pontiff received the announcement with his usual it was decided that extreme unction should be given. The Pontiff received the announcement with his usual calmness, and though scarcely able to speak audibly, said he knew his time had come, and he was ready to appear before the sublime tribunal with full trust in the divine mercy.

Monsiegnor Pifferi, Pope Leo's confessor, administered the extreme unction, and when the ceremony was over His Holiness sank back on the pillow with apparent great relief that all was done, and that he was entering into rest after his long pilgrimage.

After the administration of the viaticum, telegrams hoping for his recovery were shown to the Pope, and he appeared to be much gratified. One of the strangest features in his condition is the interest the Pope takes in telegrams inquiring about his health. Yesterday, having heard that a French lady whom he had received in audience a few weeks before had telegraphed a message of sympathy, he asked to see the message, and when Monsiegnor Pifferi brought it, and he was not allowed to look at the message, he wished to read it.

From the plassi of St. Peter's the groups of watchers can see figures fitting to and fro past the lighted windows of the palace, an unusual number of which are illuminated.

It is considered certain that the visit to France of the King and Queen of Italy, now arranged for July 18, will be postponed, as in the event of a fatal termination of the Pope's illness, King Victor Emmanuel will not be able to leave the kingdom until the successor to the pontifical throne has been elected and installed.

At 1:30 a.m.—Dr. Lapponi has just expressed the opinion that the Pope will live until morning. His Holiness is still conscious.

It was easy to read in the pale face the signs of anxious days and nights spent watching his august patient. While his words proved unmistakably how deep an affection he bears for Pope Leo.

RÍOTERS HAD ENOUGH.

On the jall steps stood Sheriff Kratz. Iat his side was Col. McCop of the First Regiment. Around them stood a few doctors and reporters. When the firing had ceased Capt. Blum re-formed his men and gave them orders: "Keep that mob back. Call on them to halt. If they do not halt shoot them down. We can't take any more chances. Men, be careful, but for God's sake keep a close watch." shouted the captain, and his men prepared for another struggle. Is did not come. The rioters scattered quickly, fearing that another charge would be made. They stood in knots around the corners in the vicinity uttering dire threats against the officers and the militia. "Let's go get the damned murderers!" called one. "Down with them!" "Kill them!" and a score of cries were heard. Some of he rioters tried to change their positions and were greeted with cries of rifles. RIOTERS HAD ENOUGH.

Within a half hour things had become so quiet that care could be taken of the dead and injured. The wounded soldiers were taken into the jail. Their injuries were taken into the jail. Their injuries were slight and were dressed by two surgeons, who were there. Four wounded militia men were taken to the Courthouse and later to their homes in ambulances and carriages. This feat was accomplished with difficulty, as only a few men were brave enough to pick them up. Charles Presky, a seventeen-year-old boy, was carried into the Courthouse. Through his wrist had gone a buckshot, and each foot was shot through.

Many of the injured were taken away before their names could be learned. The police department and ambulance corps were anxious that too much be not learned by the reporters, and it was with the greatest difficulty that facts could be ascertained.

VINCENNES (Ind.) July 6.—Rumors that an Evansyille mob might come here tonight to lynch Lee Brown, the negro who killed Patrolman Massey, have caused great excitement, though the cooler heads say there is no possibility of this.

Brown was pronounced to be dying tonight by four physicians. The prisoner is so weak from loss of blood from the bullet wound in his left lung that he cannot stand, and death will come within forty-eight hours, say the doctors. Brown tonight denied a report that he had been sentenced to hang for murdering a miner in Colorado.

INDIANAPOLIS (Ind.) July &—Governor Durbin was very much agitated by the information from Evansville. "If this condition continues," he declared emphatically, "I shall go to Evansville myself and declare the city under martial law."

At midnight he began ordering out additional militis companies. The first was that from Vincennes, which was rushed to the scene of the riot on a special train. The New Albany company was called out and placed under arms, ready to move on a moment's notice, arrangements having been made for a special train which would hurry the soldiers to the scene.

The Governor was indignant that the Sheriff of Vanderburg county had not qualled the riot in its incipiency.

"He should have sworn in 1000 deputies instead of 180," he said. "If he had performed his duties fearlessly in the first place without trying to shift the responsibility to the State this thing would not have assessed.

In 1896 a coal company imported 300 negroes to take the places of strikers in one of the mines. The negroes organized a company and drilled with rifles on the streets. One of them shot a white boy, and the entire white population, aroused at midnight by the fire bell, raided the negro quarters and drove every negro from the city, several being shot.

ROME July 6.—[By Atlantic Cable.]

The amelioration in the Pope's condition this morning was so unnatural, considering the gravity of his filness, that it was feared that possibly it was the last flickering of the vital flame. During his brighter interval, the Pope resumed his habits of command, and insisted on giving orders for the preparation of the appointing Monsignor Velpoil as secretary of the consistorial insisted on giving orders for the preparation of the appointing Monsignor Velpoli as secretary of the consistorial congregation, a post made vacant by the promotion of Monsignor Nocella to the cardinalate. The importance of such an appointment, especially at the present moment, is manifest when it is considered that on the Pope's death the secretary of state ceases to exercise his functions, which are assumed immediately by the secretary of the consistorial congregation.

In Vatican circles there seems to be dissatisfaction because of the rumors in circulation to the effect that those in authority, instead of preventing the Pope from overtaxing his falling strength, have for their own purposes urged him, contrary to his physicians' advice, to further exertion. It has been hinted that those who might be eligible candidates for the chair of St. Peter would not have many regrets should the way be left open without more delay, and that, regardless of the Pontiff's feebleness, they worked upon his harmless natural pride in the vigor of his constitution and venerable age to encourage him to preside at the two recent consistories, as well as to undertake numerous receptions of pligrims and other visitors to the Eternal City, notwithstanding the precarious condition of his health since the operation of notwithstanding the precarious condi-tion of his health since the operation of 1899, which had grown much worse dur-ing the last few months. Under the rircumstances, such insinuations energetically repudiated by those atus' continuously under his nostrils, and Dr. Lapponi arranged to impregnate the whole stmosphere of the room with oxygen. "That is much better," said the Pontiff. "Before, I felt as though I had lost my liberty."

Although Dr. Bapponi continuously recommends the patient not to speak and pay no attention to what is passing outside and to refuse to participate in what is going on, the Pontiff said smillingly: "I know you say this because of your affection for me, but either my last day is rapidly approaching, in which I must employ all the time that is left to me, so far as I can, or else I shall recover, again postponing the end. If this is the will of the Almighty, nothing can change it."

The Pope wished his arm chair to be carried near his writing table and them to the window looking on to the piassa of St. Peter. Noticing many people in carriages, the Pope said: "The plagsa looks as it does when I am able to perform some public function."

Dr. Lapponi's chief task now is the maintenance of the Pope's strength. Some improvement was indicated this afternoon by the fact that the patient was more willing to take nourishment, which was administered at short intervals, and consisted chiefly of Bordeaux champagne, raw eggs and broth, but the doctor would permit the Pope to partake of anything in reason for which he expressed a desire, for there is special danger in the possibility of increased weakness.

The only persons allowed in the Pope's bedroom this morning, besides the doctors and attendanta, were Cardinal Ramponi, Mgr. Boslitti, the master of the Pontifical chambers, and Brig.-Gen. Count Camilia Pecci of the Noble Guard, a nephew of the Pope. The Pope conversed for a long time with Count Pecci, even rising and walking about the room for a few minutes, leaning on his arm. The Pontifi on this occasion remarked: "Now I am ready to depart, having settled all my affairs. I feel I have done all in my power for the good of the church and of humanity."

ROME, July 6.—The newspapers here contain many conflicting statements about the Pope and his condition. The Tribuna says: "He spends his time partly in bed and partly in an arm-chair. Expectorating is the first sign thus far of any organic reaction, and it is said to be a good symptom, but the Pope's weakness is increasing." All those whe have seen the Pope are struck with his energy. He is reported as still addressing those about him. "No doubt," the Pontiff is reported to have said. "I am near my end, but I want to die in harness."

Over five hundred telegrams expressing sympathy with the Pope and asking for news of his condition arrived as the Vatican today, including messages from President Roosevelt, King Edward and Emperor Francis Joseph. Dowager Queen Margherita is reported to have asked about news of the Pontiff. The most important telegrams of inquiry are communicated to the Pope.

The Pope, even when in good health, sleeps only four or five hours each night, and often in the morning his bed is undisturbed and the Pope is found asleep in a chair. He occupies but a few simple rooms containing little beyond necessaries. His bed stands in an alcove separated from a large room by a curtain hanging gracefully over marble columns. Above the bed is a picture of the Madonna and child. Beside it is a prayer table, surmounted by a crucifix. A wardrobe against the wall faces the bed, and between the latter and the wall is a couch. The rest of the room is used as a study and contains a writing table with a crucifix, a chair on a carpeted platform, chairs and tables for the Pope's secretaries, writing materials and a few books, among which are the works of Danie, Virgil, and Horace, besides a Bible. The only window of the combined bedroom and study overlooks the colonnade of St. Peter's. Adjoining is a small room furnished only with an armchair and lounge, where the Pope sometimes takes an afternoon nap. The rooms are on the same level as the famous Loggia of Raphael.

great serenity of the probability that he would not long be with him, and

Since the Pope's illness assumed its serious character, there has been no marked change in the symptoms and the alternation from hope to fear in the minds of the physicians has given place to a certain feeling of apathy. For centuries the Romans had been secustomed to the rise and fall of symptoms of everyment and to charge of rulers. This doubtless had affected the present generation causing them to regard without anxiety or even keen interest events of this nature. The Pope's lilness is a case in point. During the whole of Priday and of Saturday in spite of the biasing July sunshine, cabs thronged the colonnades of the piassa of St. Peter's, questioning the guards on duty at the doors of the Vatican, watching the ingress and egress of ecclesiastical and other dignitaries and obtaining from them, if possible, information regarding the condition of the illustrious patient. Then came Sunday. The Pope seemed to be sinking fast, and hope died away on the announcement that the visiticum would be administered in the evening. But as the night wore on and the solemn rite was accomplished and, contrast to expectation, a slight improvement in the Pontiff's condition was observed.

in its death struggles, folios over the precipioe, it nearly took the man with it.

That is the story that Watts and his companion, John Ogburn, both reliable men, tell as occurring in the Hig Bend region of this county. The bear ran up the ridge near their camp, dogs and men after it. Finally, near the precipice, mentioned, it took refuge in a thick clump of young, firs. Ogburn started around the other side of the firs, Watts remaining near the verge of the precipice. The bear saw Ogburn, but did not see Watts. Out it ran plump against Watts, knocking him down, and falling on top of him. Watts, for some reason, took a firm grasp on each jowl of the bear, and before the bear recovered its senses sufficiently to hurt the man beneath it, Ogburn came running with a rifia, pressed it against the bear's side, and sense kicked in its death struggle, sind was dangarously nearing the edge of the precipice, Ogburn yelled to Watts to clutch a young tree growing within his reach. The advice was heeded, and a second afterward the bear toppled over the edge of the bluff.

two engines was on its way to Casa dero, at 1:30 o'clock this morning, the two engines was on its way to Casadero, at 129 o'clock this morning, the engine in the lead struck a cow on the track and was derailed. Engineer Fred Hamilton of the first engine was killed and Fireman Grace injured. Engineer George Dixon of the second engine had two ribs broken by bits of flying wreckage.

The wrecked engine was the same one that carried the funeral train to Tomales two weeks ago yesterday, and on its return trip plunged its tender and a coach off a trestle while rounding a sharp curve.

The train attached to it was being taken to Casadero to accommodate the crowd who had remained over the Fourth of July holidays, and desired to return to the city this morning.

The train usually is composed of empty cars, but on this occasion there were on board a number of Greek and Italians, who were being sent by the railroad company to fight forest fires which have been raging in the vicinity of Monte Rio. General Manager Rank of the North Shore road was on the train also, his intention being to conduct in person the work of the fire fighters.

GOVERNOR'S PARDON.

WON CASE FOR HERBERT.
WOODLAND, July 6.—A Governor pardon issued to John M. Herbert de-cided an important point in the matter of the administration of the estate of Ellen Seaman, deceased, valued at $40,-000. Mrs. Seaman's recent death followed close upon that of her husband. Both died intestate, leaving no issue. Herbert, a nephew, nominated Attor-ncy A. W. North as administrator, but hey A. W. North as administrator, but the application-was opposed by the Public Administrator on the ground that Herbert was convicted of a felony, and had served a term of imprisonment in State's prison; therefore, he had not a right to administer or nominate an administrator.

a right to administer or nominate an administrator. It was proved during the contest today by the records that Herbert was convicted of robbery in Fresno in 1880 and sentenced to twenty years in State's prison. Through the influence of his aunt, the late Mrs. Seaman, the sentence was commuted by the Governor to twelve years, and Herbert was released from prison in the spring of 1892. Hart North of San Francisco, representing the petitioner, showed by testimony that Herbert has led an exemplary life since his release. At the last moment, he introduced in swidence a pardon signed by Gov. Pardee today for the offense committed twenty-three years ago, restoring Herbert to citizenship. In the face of such showing, Judge Gaddis denied the opposition of the contestant and ordered letters issued to Herbert's nominee, A. W. North.

compliment will be returned by the Kearsarge and her consorts, which will be secorted to their berths in the inner harbor.

Official calls will then be exchanged by Lord Charles Beresford, Admiral Milne and Rear-Admiral Cotton. The entertainment will be robbed somewhat of the spectacular character of the ceremonies at Kiel, since King Edward, unlike the German Emperor, will be unable to be present. The entertainments in honor of President Loubet are very elaborate and extend over a period of six days.

On Thursday the American officers will be entertained at breakfast by the Pilgrims' Club, and afterward Admiral Cotton, the captains of the American vessels and Attaché Stockton will dine with the King at Buckingham Palace. On Priday the Lord Mayor will give the American officers a luncheon at the Mansion House, and in the evening they will attend a dinner given by Ambassador Choate at the American embassay, to which King Edward has been invited. Rear-Admiral Cotton will return some of the courtesies extended to the American squadron by giving a reception and dinner on the Kearsarge on July 14.

BOOZE, BARTENDER'S END. EFECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TOMES.]

VENTURA, July 5.—The County Hospital here has been all but turned into an insane asylum within the last few days, and Superintendent Packard is beside himself to accommodate the strang crowd rushing in upon him. Besides Victor Fuller, the man who stabbed himself twenty times to escape the persecution of imagidary enemies, there were today two other insane patients. One of these was John Singer, a Los Angeles bar-keeper, who was brought down here from Wheeler's Springs this morning at 3 o'clock, suffering from delirium tremens. He died this afternoon. The other case was Mary Bracken, a domestic, who had been employed in the household of Will Willoughby, and who became suddenly demented yesterday. The poor woman screamed incessantly through fear of imaginary foes. Complaints on charges of insanity were made by Superintendent Packard against Fuller and the Bracken woman and they will be examined tomorrow.

The Board of Supervisors visited the County Hospital today to consider, the advisability of establishing an inhane ward in the institution for the temporary care of unfortunates. Such an adjunct is much needed.

In a recent letter to the Peruna Medicine Company, Miss Julia Marlowe of New York City, has the following to say of Peruna:

"I am giad to write my indorsement of the great remedy, Peruna, as a nerve tonic. I do so most heartily."—Julia Marlowe.

Nervousness is very common among women. This condition is due to anemic nerve centers. The nerve centers are the reservoirs of nervous vitality. These centers become bloodless for want of proper nutrition. This is especially true in the warm season. Every summer a host of invalids are produced as the direct result of weak nerves.

This could be easily obviously by the duced as the direct result of weak nerves.

This could be easily obviated by the use of Peruna. Peruna strikes at the root of the difficulty by correcting the digestion. Direction furnishes nutrition for the nerve centers. Properly digested food furnishes these reservoirs of life with vitality, which leads to strong, steady nerves, and thus nourishes life.

The unsolicited praise that Peruna is without an equal as a nerve tonic and vital invigorator.

Thousands of testimonials from women in all parts of the United States are being received by Dr. Hartman every year.

This is not a pleasant subject to write about. But the newspaper writer, in the discharge of his varied duties, is constrained to write about a great many unpleasant things, and as this is the season when the trolley cars—and more associative those cars—and more especially those of the suburban lines—are most apt to be crowded, a few words on the un-paintable subject of the car-seat hog are not inappropriate, and may possibly do some good.

The car-seat hog, like the poor, it ems, we have always with us.

A flagrant case of this kind was noted on a crowded car coming from Santa Monica Sun-day afternoon. Papa and mama had day afternoon. Papa and mama had presmpted two seats in the middle of the car, and had turned one seat so as to face the other. Little Willie, or Johnnie, occupied the larger part of one seat facing papa and mama, (the seat next to the window, of course,) while a casual passenger, a mere male biped, was permitted to sit on the extreme end, after little Willle's feet had been duly accommo-dated and wiped in the middle of the seat. Little Willie would fain bays sat on papa's lap, but mama prevented by the injunction, "paper doesn't want you." And so, throughout the whole weary distance from Santa Monica to Los Angeles, Baby Willie occupied the major portion of one entire reat on an overcrowded ear, while tired women, who had paid full fare, stood in the aisles and steadled elves by hanging to the backs of seats and other projections.

We are all familiar with the variety of seat, hog, man or woman, who spreads himself or herself out over in unlimited quantity, utterly oblivdicts marvelous achievements for the human race during the twentieth cen-tury, but the man who attempts to set a limit to the presidilities of human lous of the fact that there are other people in the world who have rights.

It is needless to enumerate all the

The railway com-panies cannot do away with the species, for they cannot make human nature over into something other than it is is. But the railway companies might in some degree limit ravages of the seat-her, përhaps, they would post up conspicuously in each car a notice to the effect that when the cars are crowded no person shall be allowed to occupy the see pays two fares, and that seats occu-pied by small children must be paid for in all cases when the car is filled. Such a notice posted in each car, cou pled with the requirement that con-forced, would probably do much to put a stop to the seat-hog's outward man-ifestations of his swinish nature.

WHAT HATH MAN WROUGHT?

W That was certainly a most won derful achievement on Saturday when a message was sent from Oyste Bay around the world in twelve min Bay around the world in twelve min-utes, and a reply sent around, in the opposite direction, in nine minutes and a half. It almost staggers the comprehension to see such an evi-dence of man's mastery over space girdles the earth in less time than it takes to sing a song. Alongside of this, Puck's promise to "put a girdle around the earth in forty minutes" looks like ox-team transportation as compared with an electric car.

We are becoming so accustomed to these wonderful scientific achieve-ments of man that we fail to realize how really and utterly marvelous the are. Our forefathers of a century ago would better be able to appreclate them, could they revisit the world. We do not, however, by any means have to go back so far as sentury to find a time when all these wonders were still hidden in the womb of the future. It is strange to womb of the future. It is strange to reflect that as recently as fifty years ago the steam railroad and the elec-tric telegraph were in their infancy, while twenty-five years ago the elec-tric light and the telephone were just making their appearance in a tenta-tive way, and that twenty years ago the telephone, the electric car and the X-ray were unknown, while wireless telegraph is a thing of than half a dozen years.

What are to be the coming wonder of the century, in the way of scientific invention? There is the wireless teleing rate during the past few years. Indeed, many who are by no means idle dreamers claim that this has been accomplished, and there are certainly from time to time happenings which it is difficult to explain on any other ground.

Nearly 1,000,000 immigrants arrived in this country from Europe last year and one-quarter of them were illiterates. We might as well go right ahead building schoolhouses, for they are going to be needed for some time to come. At the same time it is probably in order for us to say that we are getting almighty tired of being a combined asylum and schoolhouse at one fell sweep.

It emphasizes anew the weakness, if not the absurdity, of our position as protestants against Bussian barbarity in Bessarabia, or against cruel and inhuman practices in any other part of the world. The good name of the United States is suffering severely in the eyes of the whole civilized world because of the tresumant outbreaks of men violence.

Tento Basin Storage Dam Practically Assured, About Enough Acreage Hav-ing Been Subscribed. SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.

PHOENIX (Ariz.) July 5.—No longer is it a question of securing subscrip-tions for the Tonto Basin storage dam. Now it is only a matter of adding bits and here and there in order to solidify the tracts. Practically 200,000 acres have been signed up in the Sait River Valley Water Users' Association. This, with 50,000 acres of absolitely new land, is all that the United States has ever asked. Indeed, 50,00 less would have suffied. The association has determined upon July it as the date for closing iffe subscription books. As soon as possible thereafter President Fowled will transmit a full statement of local conditions to the Secretary of the Interior, together with notification of the acreage that has been legally effered as security for repayment to the government of the cost of the Tonto works.

George H. Maxwell is in Washington, acting there as agent of the association. Arthur Powell Davis, the engineer of the Geological Survey, into whose hands the practical work has been placed, is now in Fhoenix for a short stay. He is susperintending much preliminary work in progress, including platting of the district to be irrigated and the running of new lines for away the valley to the dam site. Another member of the hydrographic branch of the Geological Survey, Prof. W. T. Lee, has been added to the local working force, particularly for investigation into the underground supply of water available for pumping. He has been quoted as saying that he has found the supply practically inexhaustible.

"The Cherry Pickers" does not mean anything that its name would imply. There are no sylvan scenes, nor sweet orchard moments. In fact, about the only things "picked" in this play are human hearts and lives.

The story deals with the adventures human hearts and lives.

The story deals with the adventures of a certain Indian half-cast, named John Nasare, who has failen in love with a merchant's daughter. Nourmallee. Nourmallee herself is loved by Col. Brough, a heartless English soldier, who puts aside no means which may lead to the accomplishment of his desires—a forced marriage with the heroine. He insuits Nourmallee, is overheard by Nasare, is struck in the face by the angered Indian, who is accused by the Britisher of an attempt to murder him.

From this time Nazare's life is one of constant flight and adventure. An outlaw, he is still loved by Nourmallee, whose affection clings passionately to him through many perils, triumphing of course, in the end.

There are a few good paris in "The Cherry Pickers," although the play, as whole in a wishy-washy trifie

Thomas Oberle gets the next best chance, as the villainous colorel. Oberle makes up so that you wouldn't know him—really it is the first time in this engagement that he has effectually concealed his personality. His work is very acceptable.

Little Summer comes down front with a really clever "Tommy Atkins," made to order with all the ridiculous qualifications of the traditional British soldier. Phosa McAillister impersonates an Irish comtessen or dukess or something or other, and George Soule Spencer faithfully grapples with the mock besoles of the leading role, that of John Nasare.

PRANCIS FUNERAL

The funeral services over the body of the late John F. Francis will be begur this morning at $:30 o'clock in the cathedral by the celebration of solemn pontifical mass by Rt. Rev. Thomas J. Conaty, assisted by a large numer of the clergy of the diocese. Rev. Father Fitzgerald of Redlands will deliver the sermon. Mr. and Mrs. Modini-Wood, who were close friends of the deceased, will sing "Nearer, My God to Thee," and "Lead Kindly Light." The representatives of the different organizations to which Mr. Francis belonged will march in a body to the cathedral from Main and Ninth streets. At the cemetery a clerical quartette, consisting of Fathers Clifford, McCabe, Murphy and Malony, chosen from the Knights of Columbus, will render the "Benedictus."

COLORADO SOCIETY.

The Knights of Pythias lodges Los Angeles will have a joint instal-tion of officers this evening at Pythi Castle Hall, No. 108 North Spri castic rian, No. 100 North spring street. The ceremonies will be interspersed with music, and addresses by prominent members of the order. Afterward refreshments will be served. The meeting is to be an open one, and for men only. All Knights of Pythias are invited to be present, and to bring their gentlemen friends.

A meeting of the Colorado Society was held at the Angelus yesterday. The entertainment was in the form of a progressive card party, followed by musical aglections and recitations. Dr. H. Nast was the chief musical performer, and Mrs. Alice A. Elliott and Mrs. C. H. Guyer gave recitations.

W. B. Harris, the traveler and au-thor, who was captured June 16 by the bandit Raisuli, near Zena. Morocco, was released yesterday in exchange for a number of native prisoners.

that Tommy rode all the long, hilly way.

It wasn't long before good news came from the hospital. Dr. Bryant had made an examination—and there was no fracture, only a nasty bruise and a pretty hard shaking up. Late last night a Sister at the hospital said: "Dr. Bryant has just left the little boy's bedside, and Tommy is resting comfortably. He's sleeping naturally. We are quite sure he will be all right in a few days."

Lucky little Tom!

The boy's mother is ill at one of the city hospitals. She knows nothing of the accident.

CABLE-TELEGRAPH EXPANSION Postal Company Making Extensive Improvements in Los Angeles, Arizona and Elsewhere. Material evidence of the wondrous as vancement of the Southwest, the in-fluence here of the American expansion policy in the Far East, and the progres-sive effects quickly following in the wake of the new Pacific cable are the greater and more efficient center in his great electric communication sys-lem. The local office is to be immedi-ately enlarged and improved exten-sively, while the lines to the southeast to be supplanted by a large, modern dynamo piant which will be the equal in efficiency to any in existence. Installation of the new plant will begin just as soon as the material now on the ways arrives, which will probably be about the 18th inst., and it will probably be in working order thirty days from that date. There will begin dynamos, and three of them already arrived, together with a carload of other kinds of electrical apparatus. The improvements will give the Postal an additional circuit, a "phantom" circuit being created by expanding the line southeast from a dupiex to a quadruplex.

C. L. Lewis, superintendent of the southwestern division of the Postal, left last night for Ash Fork. Arix, to inspect the eight-dynamo and gasoline-engine plant being completed by the company there. Mr. Lewis declared the Postal company's business had shown an annual increase, for each of the past few prosperous years, of between 50 and 100 per centile is expected to greatly augment this large increase, which involves immense improvement of the system. A new wire is now being stretched from Chicago to San Frangretic to San Frangretiched from Chicago to San Frangretic descriptions.

We have too many hair brushes on hand even for a trade like ours. We shall therefore during this week enter into a little price competition with ourselves. Our prices on these hair brushes are the lowest in the city and these prices are to be cut on every brush in stock. A few of the brush as have been soiled or otherwise marred by handling but are otherwise perfect. These will be soid regardless of the original cost. We would surgest that if you want one of these special bargains you come early that you may have the largest possible assortment to choose from. The prices range from 15c to $5, each Perfumes There are three makes of high grade handkerchief extracts that we would call your special attention to, namely: Hudnut's, Wright's and Palmer's, 50c per ounce. They are not classed and are never sold in company with department store goods.

Smelling

One of the most invigor ating things to corry is a bottle of smelling sa'ts, almost indispensable, on critain occasions. Dean's

They are very swell.

Convenient One of the most converient things that we could call your attention to at this time is one hars for carrying wet bathing sults. Fine ones made of rubber cloth 75: each up to $1.25. The cravenette bags lined with rubber at $1.50 have slik cords and are very pretty.

Elegant Dean carries a stock of genuine tortoise shell goods of very choice grade. Hair brushes $14.00 and $17.00 each; cloth brushes $14.00 each; mirrors $15.00 each; mirrors $15.00 each; more stock to most $6.00 and $8.00 each; mirrors $15.00 each; mirror

If you have a particular prescription (and there is nothing that you should be more particular about) bring it to Dean's for filling, for Dean's prescription department has the reputation of putting up the most effective prescription in the shortest passible time. Dean's

You have followed us through the various departments of beer making until no

Beer is barley-mait and hops-fool and tonic-with just enough alcohol in it.

Beer is the most healthful beverage that man can use if the beer is the best. To the weak it is essential; to the strong it is good.

Impurity in beer means germs and germs bring biliousness, and bad health. Age beer is essential, for with age the beer is properly fermented before it

Los Angeles Brewing Co's beer is absolutely pure. It is filtered in a home of clean-liness, it is cooled in filtered air, aged in the proper temperature, put into sterilized bot-tles and followed with critical eyes from beginning to end until it is known that no germs can exist in i.

These precautions are expensive, but it pays in the standard of excellence.

This wholesome beer is served by every first-class bar, cafe and hostery on the Pacific coast. It will pay you to insist on East Side beer, when ordering beer for the family or for the social glass.

You are welcome to call and inspect this modern plant. It is always open to visitors.

The young Señor Saens of The Pulms continues to increase his lead in the schol'rship race. There are several fair señoritas who are giving him a lively chase, but Don Manuel is too speedy for them. Saens now only lacks 190 points of having a score of 10,000, which is remarkable so early in the contest. Miss Jeanette Bower of Pasadena has recovered second place, but owing to the critical illness of her mother she may have to give up her active canvass. Mrs. Bower has been bedfast for nearly six months, and the household cares, therefore, devolve on the young daughter, who is ambitious to obtain a good business college education, so that she may be better prepared to fight the battle of life.

Miss Hibbard of Pomona, Miss Pedelty of Santa Ana and George Webb of Covina did not report progress yesterday, and their totals remain unchanged. Porter Blackburn of Gardena is rushing things in the strawberry district, and has moved up to sixth place. Ethel Bryan has dropped back to seventh place, and Pearl Ellis of Whittier has jumped from eleventh to eighth position.

ALFRED WAGNER.

Mr. Wagner shows an earnest of his admiration for the young musician by enclosing a six months' subscription, and thus the ball is started rolling for Miss Ball with a score of 40 points. Keep it rolling.

Among the latest to enter the context are Vivian Carter of Long Beach, and Julietta Dumont Campbell of 1117 Court street. Los Angeles. Julietta is a little Scotch lassie with a decided penchant for art. She has taken some instruction in an art school and gives promise of great things if given the opportunity. Her parents are not able to give her the schooling they would like, so Julietta is going to try to win a scholarship in the Los Angeles School of Art and Design.

The Scholastic prizes in the contest will consist of scholarships in the followed.

There will be several very attractive additions to the list in a very short while. The list already embraces upward of twenty valuable scholarships, and it will be expanded to thirty, if it becomes apparent that so many will be needed in order to reward all of those who are making an earnest and effective effort to earn them.

Harry Pulliam's Mistake in Davis Case - Other Baseball and Sporting Doings.

It may be stated with reasonable certainty that the present is the last year the Pacific Coast Baseball League

Manager Morley, who left Sunday night for the East via San Francisco, has had a heart to heart talk with Henry Harris long before this time, and the upshot of it all is that the proper overtures will be made to the National Association of Minor Baseball Leagues by the Coast people through Morley, who will be their agent. Harris has been thinking of making a trip this summer, being in a good position to do so, as Charlie Irwin can run the team in his absence as well as Frank Dillion looks after the Looloos, which is saying considerable. Ever since the National Association started up, about the time of the first minor-league agreement of two seasons ago, it has been steadily and persistently trying to enlist the California League in its ranks, for the organization which controls baseball on the western side of the Rocky Moumtains is the strongest minor league in the country, not excepting the eastern. Pat Powers and Farreil, the high officers of the association, have been advised by T. J. Hickey and M. H. Sexley's aggregation of fine fielding, clever batting and brilliant base-running phenomena, but if the talent of the league is compressed into one club nobody cares about the race. Mohler will brace up the Siwashes wonderfully, and if Parke Wilson in his present trip East after talent succeeds in digging up another pair of the same class for the rest of his infield the Seattle team may be expected to better its position in the pennant race considerably.

Harry Pulliam certainly kicked a hornet's nest when as president of the National League he became-scared at the twelve-club consolidation threat, speculated upon his disrating and alied with the archenemy of organized baseball, John T. Brush, by lifting the ban on George Davis, allowing him to play ball with the New York team contrary to the provisions of the peace agreement. Pulliam as president of the National League has made several mistakes, and this last one bids fair to reopen the fight which was patched up last winter. Cincinnatt, St. Louis and Chicago have threatened to play no games with New York if Davis is in the line-up. The sooner Brush is kicked out of baseball bodily, the better it will be for the sport; he has been nothing but a disturbing factor since the start.

Fred Parent and Chick Stahl of the Fred Parent and Chick Stahl of the Boston Americans wear the league batting honors with 371 and 370, respectively, up to date. Jimmy Collins must have a rare band of sluggers truly. Pat Dougherty, once a local favorite, is batting for .310; Freeman, .295; Gibson, .315; Smith, .321; Young, .302, and the rest varying figures above .200. No wonder they stand well in the raca. Dougherty has scored more runs than any other man in the league so far at 42. Rube Waddell has slumped greatly in his hitting, having batted only .085 in 18 games. Delahanty is crawling upward to his old place as King of Swat, being now at .340. He is playing first base.

PARTIES COME AND GO.

John Schumacher and Captain Banning returned last week from a sixweeks' trip to the Yosemite and Calaveras big tree grove. The gentlemen took a team as far as Fresno and there unloaded it from the train driving the rest of the trip. They caught quite a few trout, saw considerable game and altogether had a most enjoyable vacation.

A party chaperoned by Bill Ware and composed of Pete Carr, Jim Trussel, C. J. McCormick of San Gabriel and possibly one other, will leave next Saturday for Balley's ranch in the Snowy Mountains. They expect to strike out for Pine Mountain and have received all manner of encouraging reports from Pop Balley who says the deer and bear are eating him out of house and home. There is pienty of ASCOT'S PARK'S STATUS. Capt. T. B. Williams of the New California Jockey Club. Captain Merry wrote Belmont inquiring about the status of the New York Jockey Club and received in reply a letter from him stating the N. Y. J. C. "makes no attempt to regulate racing in the West and Middle West or Pacific Coast, other than in the matter of dealing with turf irregularities." Williams has been East, however, and it is believed he has been trying to put a spoke in the local racing wheel.

NEW BLUEROCK FACILITIES.

Biddy Bishop wants to match Her-rers with Britt and will coheede weight. Jimmy apparently does not want any of the Mexican's game; Aurewant any of the Mexican's game; Aurello would be very likely to beat him, and doubtiess Jimmy knows it.

Billy Decoursey is still on the trail of Herrera, but he evidently does not relish the beating he took in Los Angeles from Decoursey's hands.

George Gardner, though he won from Root, says he wants no more of the Canadian "clean break" rules.

Jeffries has not begun hard work yet. Eastern critics think there will be music when the widely-different training methods of Fitzsimmons and Delancy begin to operate in the same camp.

Sailor Wants a Match.

One North, who claims to be the welterweight champion of the navy, is in town looking for a match with the Dixle Kid. North's last match was with another unknown, Jack Walker, whom he knocked out in three rounds. March 13.

DURFEE TO TAKE A STRING.

W. G. Durfee, the veteran horseman, will leave for Seattle with a string of seven trotters and pacers Wednesday morning, going by boat. In Mr. Durfee's string will be Henry Berry's good gelding Briney K., Wm. Gariand's Sweet Marie. Byron Erkenbrecher's Rita H., and possibly Durfee's stud, Coronado.

At the same time M. B. Mosher, another veteran reinsman, expects to depart with a good trotter and pacer, and Walter Maben has been arranging to make the trip. All these Los Angeles horses are to be raced at the Seattle meet which opens in about two weeks and is to run twenty-one days. When the meeting is over in the Northwest the horses will be brought back along the circuit, stopping at Yolo, Woodland and the other fairs en route. They will not be back much before J. W. NEWS AND BUSINESS.

The annual picnic of the Ohlo Society will be given at Redondo July 18. A band will be provided for dancing. The trip is to be made by the electric line. Struck by Grocery Wagon.

H. E. Morgan of Quincy, Ill., while alighting from a West Seventh-street car at Hill street yesterday, was struck by a grocery wagon and sustained such injuries as to require four stitches in the head. He was treated at a doctor's office near by, and was unconscious half an hour.

Graduates' Testimonial.

The graduating class of the Los Angeles High School has presented Rev. William Horace Day with a resolution, properly engrossed, as a testimonial of the appreciation by the class members of his baccalaureate sermon at the time of the recent graduation. The class adopted the motto suggested in the sermon, "Scientia non nobis solum."

Rev. George A. Hough of Vincent Methodist Church left yesterday for Detroit, Mich., where he will speak at the international convention of the Epworth League, on July 17. His subject is, "The Boy Problem," and he has the honor of being the only Pacific Coast representative on the programme. He will stop at the Grand Cafion, en route East, and will be absent for six weeks, Detroit being the home of his childhood.

Coroner's Cases.

A coroner's Jury yesterday absolved from blame the crew of the Pacific Electric Company's Long Beach car from which Tranquiline Flores, a Mexican laborer, fell to his death on July Fourth. Another coroner's jury decided that the death of José Montijo, the Mexican who expired in the City Jail, was the result of over dilatino of the heart, a natural cause. The autopsy developed no trace of poison. It was at first supposed that Montijo had taken poison with spicidal intent. Preshyterian Test. taken poison with Presbyterian Tent.

The Evangelistic Committee of Los Angeles Presbytery, having decided to conduct a campaign in the city, held a meeting yesterday, to which they invited the Rev. Dana W. Bartlett of the Bethlehem Institution and the Trotter Brothers of the Union Rescue Mission. The object was to consult with these men of practical experience in the field, as to the best place to locate a tent for the purpose. They arrived at no decision, but from the information received will soon decide upon the best location.

That Methodist Commission.

The local committee of the Southern California Conference of the Methodist church, will meet at 9:39 this morning, at the Westminster Hotel, with the committee from the general conference, to close up the details for the meeting of that body next spring. Everything seems to be satisfactory, and the business will probably require a very short session of the joint committee. This evening all will be entertained at a banquet at the Westminster, together with a large number of other citizens of the city.

Sandarson's Luck.

Sanderson's Luck.

John R. Sanderson is a lucky man. That is, if anything that happens to a man in the last stages of consumption can be construed as lucky. Sanderson is a Civil War veteran. He was a member of the Eighth Ohio Volunteer Cavairy. Early yesterday morning he was found by Patrolman Cahill on East Second street, where he had sunk flown in exhaustion. Cahill brought the old soldier to police headquarters. The usual search resulted in a surprice—Sanderson had $1500, in gold and bills, and a valuable gold watch, in his clothing. He was removed to the Soldiers' Home at Sawtelle, where the spark of life will be nursed in his feeble and emaciated frame.

Pientiful and properly timed irrigation and abundant fertili-mation were the principal factors in the production of the fine fruit now exhib-ited by the San Bernardino county or-chardist. He claims that by following the mode of culture, which his experi-ments have shown to be correct, as fine cherries as grow can be produced throughout a large part of Southern California. The orchard which he took hold of this season had been given up as a hopeless case by its former owner.

Horsey Document Fired at the Lecal Livery Owners.

Mustn't Interfere With Walking Delegate"-Biddle's Latest Farce Falls Flat.

The "Stablemen's Protective Union

The "Stablemen's Protective Union, No. 10,671" (!1) is the latest comedy of the series of light summer farces launched in Los Angeles during the past few months by the Jimgraylembiddle gang.

It might have been supposed that stablemen would be the last to organize, as their work does not call for any great skill, is not at all dangerous, and is followed by a class more roving in habit than even the peripatetic "hashers," who are constantly traveling from town to town. A man who has been employed in a livery stable for three consecutive months is considered an old hand.

Yesterday printed "agreements" were sent out to the principal stables of the city. At the top is printed the portentous number—10.671—by which it seems the promoters thought to scare the liverymen into believing that they really had that many unions scattered out through the country. Below follows a scale of wages and hours, "respectfully" submitted by the agitators to employers.

employers.

The arbitrary conditions were distributed to the proprietors of the leading stables, and the "business agents" irributed to the proprietors of the leading stables, and the "business agents" were in most cases met with a laughmone of the places treated the thing seriously. As in other lines, proprietors refuse to be dictated to, and no attention will be paid to the "demands."

One of the first to be approached was Tony Bright, proprietor of the Pony Stables, a large and long-established livery on Requena street. Said Mr. Bright: "I have been in business in this place for sixteen years, and I have never had any trouble with my employés of any serious character. I don't propose to have my business run by a lot of loafers now, and I told tnem so. "I showed the walking delegate a copy of The Times' recent Randsburg article, which I have cut out and gave him to understand that the unions weren't going to work any such game in my section of this town.

"I will fight this thing, if necessary, to the extremest limit to which the unions want-to go. If worst comes to worst, it know where I can get Japanese help to take care of my horses. "However, I don't fear any such catastrophe. So far as I know, there is only one union man in my place, and any strike order that they might issue would have no effect on my business."

EMBRACED BY MRS. SWENSEN

inder sainty from the three is a decided difference of opinion upon this subject, although the scheme went through without any sign of opposition. At the monthly meeting of the Congregational ministers, held in the First Congregational church yesterday, the following strong resolution was adopted: Mrs. Brown Does Not Believe Husband a Murderer.

day, the following strong resolution was adopted:
"Resolved, That in view of the fact that there are already four general Sunday-school workers in Southern California, it is the sense of this body that the appointment by the Southern California Sunday-school Association of a general worker, is unwise and uncailed for."

There was some quietly-expressed opinion to the same effect, during the convention. By some it was thought to be an unnecessary tax on the benevolence of the churches, several of which support their own missionaries in the field.

gated by the California soil and climate that does business in the fertile valley of the Colorado River. That plump, luscious grapes ripening early in July in commercial quantities are worth "their weight in gold" in the eastern market is a fact which does not need to be emphasized.

The grapes at the chamber were brought in yesterday by Frank Monaghan and Dan Murphy, the Needles merchants from the Lamar brothers ranch near that piace. One bunch of the Tokay variety weighs four pounds, and another of Black Hamburgs weighs three and three-fourths pounds. They

BROWN WRITES TO WIFE.

Accompanying the affidavit referred to, in the same envelope, was a scrawled pencil note from Newton Brown to his wife—his first word to her since May I. Terms of extravagant endearment are splashed through the brief message with the undeceiving prodigality of the hand that writes what the heart has ceased to feel; but not once does he say "my wife."

The pitiable note was scrawled, hurriedly, in the jail at Altar, where Brown awaits trial for murder. In it he declares, baildly, that he is "as innocent of the crime as you (meaning his wife) or Mrs. Swensen." He says the Mexicans are "all right," and

November 4, 1992, and sets forth that Newton Brown has received $125 from Otterson and in return therefor agrees to locate and deed to him a one-half interest in a mining claim in the Altar district. Otterson told Mr. Foley that in the fall of 1909 Brown approached him, in Ban Bernarby nossible to put under irrigation, greater than the entire irrigated area of the Valley-of the Nile in Egypt. The soil is as rich as that along the Nile, and the natural conditions probably are even more favorable to horticultural products."

Peole and Prince.

Poole, the London tallor, is about to receive the accolade. Why not? Has he not done more to make Edward Vill presentable than all other artists in the United Kingdom put together? Clother make the king as well as the man. Poole makes the clothes; ergo, Poole makes the clothes; ergo, Poole makes the king. When Edward was simply Prince of Wales he owed Poole at times as much as $100,000, and even suffered the tallor to address him in public places without fear of the tower. There are several distinguished Pooles in England, but none so famous as the Tallor Poole.

One day at Ascot Poole, hovering near the Prince's person, and seeking to be agreeable. remarked, sweeping to be agreeable. Femarked, sweeping his hand over the assemblage: "Your Royal Highness, the crowd today appears to be rather mixed." The Prince, who always hated a shob, looked amusedly at Poole and replied: "Well, Poole, we can't all be tallors."

"I am convinced, after making a most thorough investigation, that the killing of Swensen was accidental. The trouble has been that Brown has been arraigned before the public for every conceivable misdeed except for the one act with which he was charged. Brown explained to may complete satisfaction how the sale of the mine has been turned to make it unjustly appear like fraud. Sections 3 to 13 'deal with the arbitrary regulations imposed by the would-be dictators. For instance: "All men employed by this stable shall become members of this union." Sure, Mike! The walking delegate knows a good thing when he sees it. More men; more contributions; all same get-rich-quick proposition for him.

"The stable agrees not to inconvenience the business agent or any one delegated by the union, while in the performance of his duties." Of course, this goes without saying, for where is the bold proprietor who would think of interfering with another man trying to run his affairs? Further, deponents say that sixteen horses shall constitute a string; that the work shall be performed between the hours of 5 o'clock a.m. and 7 o'clock p.m.; that hostlers shall not do extra driving; that meal time shall be allowed, and so forth ad infinitum—ad nauseam.

The paper is backed up by the totem and a seal, which alleges that an institution called the American Federation of Labor is behind this horsey and fearsome bunch. It is not known whether sixteen union men constitute a string or not; they have laid down no rules in this regard, but the proprietors say that when sixteen or any less number get together in any one stable there is going to be some stringing.

At the head of the new union are F. D. Lyman and George D. Tyler—a houler and a buggy-washer, respectively.

The new branch of "organized labor" is taken seriously by no one—except the members themselves. They contemplate no particular action now, for, in fact, they are quite paralysed to think that their bluff didn't work yesterday.

It is all Lem Biddle's latest scheme "for revenue only." The poor dupes will see it after paying their dues a few weeks.

BAPTISTS' MEETING.

To be Held in Pirst Congregational

A meeting is to be held in the old First Congregational Church building July 17 at $ p.m., for the purpose of perfecting the organization of the new Baptist Church of this city, of which Rev. Robert J. Burdette is to be the pastor, as previously announced in The Times. The committee in charge is desirous that those wishing to unite shall send in their names before July 15.

are from three-year-old vines, the products of which are shipped east by express, bringing immense prices in the markets where they have no competitors at this time of year.

This result of individual enterprise along the Colorado opens up the possibility of a great grape industry in that region when the government, whose engineers have begun preliminary work there on behalf of the national irrigation law, shall have made irrigable the immense area of land that is contemplated in the operations. Standard table grapes ready for the market in large quantities in July could be-made a product probably unsurpassed in profit among California's horticultural workers.

"There is no doubt that the products of these three-year-old vines suggest the possibility of an unrivaled table grape industry in the rich region which the government has undertaken to reclaim through irrigational means," said Mr. Murphy yesterday. The government engineers have ascertained that from thirty miles above Needles to the mouth of the Colorado River there is an area of fertile land that it will be possible to put under irrigation, greater than the entire irrigated area of the Valley_of the Nile in Egypt. The soil is as rich as that along the Nile, and the natural conditions probably are even more favorable to horticultural products."

Councilmen have had time to take an account of stock and to plan new and sweeping reforms. See of even sterner stuff than the nine City Fathers might sheetinte, perhaps, before riding full till into the ging to battle with the genteel saloon, and the ward represent-atives are displaying a becoming diffidence regarding the ordinance which is expected to stop the use of liquor in soft drinks at soda fountains.

Indeed, the drink with the stick in it has obtained a very firm grip on the popular fancy. The matinee girls and the society buds and the idois home from college and even the staid and sedate matrons have caught the taste for the drink which may be said to cheer and not inebriate. Lately the demand has greatly increased for the "Cleonatra," the "Strawberry Antoinstics," the "Sundaes," the "Jarca Anthony and other Roman punches, and all the other drinks which are enlivened from the bottle marked spiritus frumenti," or from sundry unmarked spigots at the soda fountain.

If # were only the woman and girls who included the "Sundaed North Parks which are enlivened from the soda fountain.

or from sundry unmarked spiritus frumenti," or from sundry unmarked spigots at the soda fountain.

If it were only the woman and girls
'who imbibed the "stimulated Klondikes" the protests would not come from so many directions to harass the Councilmen. But, unfortunately, it is not unusual for some bold, bad man who has bought a 5-cent package of cigarettes and is out on a terrible tear to wander into the soda distillery and partake of the cheering beverages.
And thus it happens that while the church people and the temperance soclettes are attacking the Council in front, the saloon-keepers are nudging them from behind in the hope that legislation will be enacted thas will prevent the use of alcoholic stimulants in soft drinks.

Councilman Davenport is particularly sunious to vote for an ordinance that will put a very high license on soda stands that know the "three-finger" signal, and are accustomed to furnish logs of wood when a stick is mentioned.
Davenport has suggested to his conferees that the soda fountains should be compelled to pay the same license as the saloons—380 a month. There are several difficulties in the way of this license measure. The number of retail itquor establishments in the city is imited to 200, and the soda fountains would become saloons in all but name if such a license law should be enacted.

Other members of the Council deorted.

Other members of the Council declare themselves opposed to an ordinance which looks to the licensing of the soda fountain. They would rather see the use of liquor in such places stopped altogether.

Steps were taken yesterday toward the preparation of a measure that will meet with the approval of a majority of the Council. Just what such an ordinance will look like when it has passed through the bill is difficult to surmise. Nine Councilmen appear to have nine opinions on the soda fountain-liquor question, and today there is nothing to show what sort of an ordinance the majority would favor. Next Monday may bring developments, however.

Battle Over Lights.

This morning at 10 o'clock the Lighting Committee will meet to settle the distribution of the additional lamps for which provision is to be made in the new street lighting contract. Theodore Summerland of the Fourth Ward spent yesterday at home putting on his war paint, and he is expected to appear in all the pomp and panoply of war at the session this morning. Summerland is determined to extend a lamp to the benighted sections of his balliwick, and the number of such sections has quite paralyzed the other members of the Council with the exception of Davenport. Davenport of the Sixth Ward has prepared a schedule of statistics to prove that he is entitled to more street lamps than any other official on top of the earth, and he expects to deliver one of his justly celebrated orations on "Justice and aquity" at the gathering today. There are other members of the official family who will have a word to say.

the venire summioned the previous day
by Sheriff White became exhausted, and Judge Smith ordered another special venire of twenty-five to be summoned by the Sheriff. Adjournment until 3 p.m. was then taken.

In the examination of the last talesman, Dr. Steinhart, a flash of fun brightened the dry proceedings. Steinhart couldn't clearly hear Earl Rogera's questions, and Judge Smith, whose evident determination is to see that this second trial moves along with as much speed as is comportable with judicial dignity, sharply suggested that the attorneys "speak up" Rogers replied that he judged the

Then, addressing the talesman, Judge Smith said: "Doctor, do you not hear clearly? Have you trouble with your

"Why—er—yes, sir, some," replied the venerable talesman, leaning forward in his chair and trumpeting his right ear what my wife says, and sometimes I can't."

A beating grin overspread the face of the court. "Doctor," His Honor said softly, "is that the fault of your ear?"

The talesman's answer was lost in

EVENTS IN SOCIETY.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lloyd, No. 572 West Thirty-eighth street, was the scene of an elaborate reception last evening. The affair was given in honor of their daughter, Mabel, whose marriage with William A. Macdonald of Long Beach took place June 20. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd were as-The house was beautifully decorated throughout, green and white being used in the parlors and pink and white in the hall and dining-room. Hydrangeas, carnations, sweet peas and asparagus plumosus were used to carry out the effect. The broad veranda, where punch was served, was canvassed and lighted with Japanese lanterns and decorated with greenery. Miss Georgia Neuhart presided at the punch bowl. Dainty refreshments were served in the dining-room by Miss Mildred Ferguson and Miss Justine Neuhart. About two hundred guests called during the evening.

Philomela Musicale.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Henderson of South Bonnie Brae entertained has evening for the Philomela Club and its friends, a company of about eight filling the pretty rooms that were threwn together for the occasion into a large music room, and which were decorated with cut figwers, papyrus and potted plants.

The club, which is in its first season, is strictly a study club it has a membership of sixteen, who have met eveny two weeks and have accomplished much in the way of hard work. Mrs. Hayward was organizer of the club, and the first open meeting was given last evening at her house. The scolelence of the programme is vouched for by the names of those taking part, as follows: Mrs. Edward L. Davis, Mrs. Mary Goodin and Mrs. Earl Powers and daughter are spending a month at Fine Cliffs, have returned to the city for a short stay. Quite a large party for club members will go up to the candidate will join the party.

an error of 300 was made in addition. This has been rectified and is responsible for his apparent loss of points. Webb has been sick for the last day or two, but will make up for lost time as soon as he feels all right again. Ethel E. Bryan of Passdena has been indisposed for several days and unable to work in consequence of which she has lost some ground which she hopes to make up in the next few days.

Josephine Den added but 50 to her score yesterday, but remains in ninth place. Miss Den's Santa Barbara friends have not been heard from yet. When they come to her assistance, as she expects they will, she will most likely go farther up the ladder.

Winifred Beckingsale, the "Orange Blossom Girl" of Ontario, has gotten into "upper tendom" again.

"Baby" Blanche Marble, the pet of the old solders at the national home, has gone from sixteenth to eleventh place. "Baby" Blanche is beginning to look very much like a winner, thanks to her soldier friends and others.

Florence Darch has remained in tweifth place now for several days. She is a hard and earnest worker, however, and will no doubt stride upward before the contest is very old.

Jack Harrigan is still lucky enough to hold the unlucky No. 13, and the manner in which he is turning himself loose in the contest indicates that he does not propose to drop any lower than he is now. "Excelsior" is inscribed on his banner.

Mabel Brown of Colegrove has dropped back from tenth to fourteenth place, but if anybody thinks Mabel has been napping, there is another guess a-coming.

with all his faculties ready developed, the sensations of that person probably would not be unlike those of John Carryuth, the thirty-year-old Scotchman, who, having been billed from birth, has just received his sight as the result of a remarkable operation at the Glasgow Ophthalmic Hospital. Since he left the hospital, Carruth, who is the son of a farmer of Welt, has been jetting acquainted with the appearance of persons and things and, as he is an unusually intelligent man, many of his comments thereupon have been remarkably interesting.

It was largely through accident that Carruth came to be operated upon. As he had been born bilind, none of his acquaintances ever had supposed that he could be made to see. Neither did Carruth himself, so, even as a little boy, he determined to get through life as best he could without eyesight, and the result was that he accomplished things that seem almost incredible. For instance, he tended cattle, of whose appearance he had been able to form some idea by feeling of them. He grew flowers, picked them, and was able to arrange them in bouquets that it would have been hard for an expert. In the groupting of colors to have beaten. For a year and a half this billed man drove the delivery cart of the village grocer and distributed its contents to the customers. Sometimes he would have as many as thirty parcels in his cart, but his wonderfully-developed sense of touch enabled him to pick out everyone and deliver it at the right address. Through the agency of a young physician of his own town. Carruth was taken to Glasgow to be operated upon. It was a first, but that wonder fully-developed sense of touch enabled him to pick out everyone and deliver it at the right address. Through the agency of a young physician of his own town. Mrs. Ida Roser, grand-niece of the late U. S. President James K. Polk, relates her happy experience with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR Mrs. PINKHAN—I have been married for nearly two years, and so far have not been blessed with a child. I have, however, suffered with a complication of female troubles and painful menstruation, until very recently.

"The value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was called to my attention by an intimate friend, whose life had simply been a torture with inflammation and ulceration, and a few bottles of your Compound cured her; she can hardly believe it herself to-day, she enjoys such blessed health. I took four bottles of your Compound and consider myself cured. I am once more in fine health and spirits; my domestic and official duties all seem easy now, for I feel so strong I can do three times what I used to do. You have a host of friends in Denver, and among the best count, Yours very gratefully,

Mrs. Ina L. Rosen, 326 E. 18th Ave, Denver, Col. If you are ill, don't hestitate to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, and write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice. It is free and always helpful.

No other person has had so wide an experience with the ills of women, nor such a record of success, as Mrs. Pinkham has had. Every sick woman should profit by Mrs. Pinkham's advice. Write to-day. Tell her all. It may save your life.

BLACK SCALE COMMITTEE. RIVERSIDE, July 7.—The following committee of representative fruit growers has been named to investigatae, black scale and the best methods of wiping it out: J. R. Cuttle, J. H. Reed, B. B. Wright, L. F. Darling, C. E. Kennedy, J. R. Hudson, H. E. Meacham, R. Brimsmead, S. Wright and A. J. Everest. The weather conditions have been favorable for the rapid increase of the pest, and it is generally conceded that active measures must be taken to eliminate it. Horticultural Commissioner Cundiff believes fumigation, all things considered, to be best, but under proper conditions he has found spraying with distilate emulsion effective. Wherever the pest has got a good hold it has become serious, depreciating the quality and diminishing the quantity of the fruit. The cost of spraying is estimated at 14 cents for large seedling trees, with half that amount, approximately, for navels. The process of spraying requires thorough and intelligent work. When the weather grows colder the trees are liable to be injured by spraying. Res scale and black scale must be treated by different methods. RIVERSIDE, July 7.—The following

There was considerable discussion when the project of a new school was first launched in favor of a building of brick to cost about $20,-000, but in view of the fact that it is absolutely necessary that the bonds be voted by the people, the Trustees decided upon the smaller amount as being the more likely to meet with the general public approval. ried here today by Justice Smithwick.

Palmer offered a block in the southwest part of town bounded by West, Bycamore, Wainut and Pine streets as a gift; W. B. Hervey, seventy-five feet west of the United Presbyterian Church on East Fourth street, for 1500; and W. B. Wetherbee, the site finally selected, for 1850. The site as chosen is one block south of the business center of town on the principal street running north and south, and offers ample room for such a building as is contemplated. Payment for the lot will be made the first Monday in the large Alien ranch. The hundreds of acres of apricots in that locality require thousands of hands yearly to pick, cut and spread the fruit preparatory to drying it. The demand for help at present is greater than the supply. The fruit ripens rapidly, the season lasting usually three weeks. Fruit ranchers say that owing to the abundant rains, the fruit is larger and finer than for many previous years, and better prices are paid to helpers in the orchards. the lessee, lost about $6500, with insurance of $2000.

Last Friday, a Mexican named Leandro Martinez was shot and killed at Johnson Camp by Superintendent J. T. Clifford of the Dragoon Copper Mining Company. Mastines had been discharged, and had been taking on liquor in consequence. Meeting Clifford, he drew a dirk and stabbed the superintendent, inflicting a deep gash, that would have been more serious had the weapon not struck a rib. Clifford, who was unarmed at the time, rushed into a near-by store and, securing a revolver, counties may yet escape the payment of the iniquitous Tucson and Globe natrow-gauge railway bonds. It is believed that when Congress has been fully advised of the situation the United States will take upon itself the payment of the bonds, as they were taxed upon Pima county without her consent, solely by action of Congress. There has just been a conference between the Supervisors of the two counties affected. The Supervisors aver that inasmuch as the bonds were invalid prior to June, 1884, there should be no interest charged from 1883 until that time. If this contention be correct, nearly $100,000 would be saved in the way of interest. The total amount is something over $500,000. Ex-Delegate Marcus A. Smith has offered to fight the matter in Congress at his own expense, to receive nothing if unsuccessful and in the event of success to receive 25 per cent. of the amount saved. The list aggregates something over $100,000.

The Colorado River at Yuma has reached nearly the 30-foot stage, and is overflowing the lowlands and working through the slight levee that protected a considerable stretch of farming lands in the river bottoms. The citizens of Yuma believe that the government should come to their rescue and construct substantial levees. They will bring up this matter in the next session of Congress through Delegate Wilson.

Nothing has been heard thus far of the rebuilding of the San Xavier Hothe Mexicans off the works. It is told that the Mexicans were clearly the aggressors.

Bis Apology.

Some years ago there was an old judge on the bench in Berks county whose decisions, in consequence of numerous reversals, did not always command respect. One day in a case, in which he was sitting one of the law-syers lost patience at his inability to see things in a certain light, and in the heat of the moment remarked that the intellect of the court was so dark a flash of lightning could not penetrate it. For this contempt the judge showed a disposition to be very severe with the offender, and it was only after much persuasion by friends of the latter that he yielded and decided to accept a public apology. The following day the lawyer accordingly appeared before his honor and made amends by saying: "I regret very much that I said the intellect of the court was so dark lightning could not penetrate it. I guess it could. It is a very penetrating thing."—(Philadelphia Ledger.

The Lime Juice Island.

The Lime Juice Island.

Nearly all the lime juice used in the world comes from the tiny island of Montserrat, in the British West Indies. The lime grows wild in many West Indian islands, but only in Montserrat is it used commercially. That island is one vast garden of lime trees, and nowhere in the world is there a finer sight than its thirty miles of orchards, laden with the fruit of the lime or fragrant with its blossoms.

The fruit is gathered by negro women, who carry it down the hills to the shipping port in big baskets on their heads. Like all West Indians, they are remarkable for their ability to carry ry heavy weights in this manner. Once the company which controls the lime juice industry sought to lighten the burden of its laborers by introducing wheel-barrows.

The negroes filled the wheelbarrows readily enough and then carried them on their heads as they had been used to carry the baskets. Many a negro woman will carry a dunderedweight of limes on her head for a distance of a mile or more.—Indianapolis News.

Birds Willing to be Acquainted.

ACCOMMODATIONS FOR THEM. RIENDLY TERMS EASILY ESTABLISHED WHEN CONVINCED NO HARM IS MEANT. PURPLE MARTINS WAR ON MOSQUITORS AND FLIES-WRENS SURPLUS HOUSE

BY EDWARD B. CLARK.

willing to become brotherly indeed hey be met in the spirit of kinship, ecently there has been a disputs ween one vetgran American orni-ogist on the one side and two ager but equally well-known ornithologist on the one side and two younger but equally well-known ornithologists on the other as to the cause of the birds fear of man. One says the fear is instinctive and consequently always has existed. The others say it is the result partly of the teaching of the young by the parent birds, and partly of inherited timidity—inherited saily through those generations of the feathered race which have been in contact with man and have learned that he is to be dreaded.

WILLING TO BE FRIENDLY.

There is no intention here of taking said that pioneers entering a country where no man before has set foot have found that some of the birds paid no more attention to the human intruders than they did to the deer of the forest. Let a bird, no matter how wild its nature, learn by actual experience that you mean it no harm and you may get upon as friendly a footing with it as you are with the family cat.

There is no one, be he urbanite or suburbanite, who cannot have his bird friends about him if he so will. A man living on one of the crowded business thoroughfares of Chicago, with clattering cable cars passing his door every two minutes of the day, has a colony of purple martins dwelling in little box houses upon the root of his building. Six years they have lived there, never failing to return at the waining of winter.

DINES ON MOSQUITOES.

DINES ON MOSQUITOES. The purple martin (Progne subis) loves the companionship of man. It has a musical twittering note that is one of the softest sounds in nature. It is one of the dreaded foes of the insect hordes and it repays man for a little proffered kindness by doing its best to make mosquito bars and fly-traps a useless hurury. The purple martin in its movements from pince to pince is much of a mystery. It will be abundant in one section of the country for years and then will disappear as completely as though its race had been annihilated. Apparently it has been seized simply with a moving manla like unto that which attacks many human fam-of your country home and the wren will look over the premises, and if it finds those things which to a wren amount to modern conveniences it will lease the apartment for the season. The house wren is a singer of no mean order. It is an insistent singer, however, and to those who object to having their morning naps disturbed the wren becomes something of a nuisance. If you wish the wren's company nail its little house to the side of a building or place it upon a pole in the yard. Make the circular entrance exactly the size of a sliver quarter and cut it midway between the top and bottom of the box. The English sparrow is the wren's arch enemy, but the little fellow can take care of itself if the sparrow be unable to get into the home and destroy the eggs. Luckilly the wren can alip into a hole which is barely large enough for the entrance of the sparrow's head.

BUILDS SURPLUS NESTS.

to sing between straws, the male bird will carry building material into every crook and cranny in the vicinity of his real nest. At this writing one wren husband is spending his time while his wife cares for the eggs in building a make-believe nest in a fold of an awning. He gets twenty or thirty straws in position and then the wind destroys the result of his work, but at it he goes again and cares not a whit that apparently his labor is to be as unending as the stone rolling of Sisyphus. In the marsh wren (Cistothorus palustris) this home-building mania is carried to an extreme, and both the an unchanged appetite for the same insect tidbits.

In recent years the purple martin has been diminishing rapidly in numbers in New England. In New York State it has left some of the villages to which it was attached for years, and has appared in other places where before it was practically unknown. In the great city of Chicago there are more purple martins this year than were ever known to have dwelt under the pall of the town's smoke in all the years that have gone. Put a common box, divided into compartments with circular entrances thereto, upon the roof tree and the chances are that this bird in its raiment of royal purple will honor you with its presence through the summer.

LODGING FOR HOUSE WREN.

The house wren is ublquitous. THE BROWN THRASHER'S SOLO.

The brown thrasher is not a bird of the cities, but it will visit the gardem of the suburbs and there make its home if man has been sparing in the use of the pruning knife and has left a thicket retreat in some secluded corner. The song of the brown thrasher is interior in its varied sweetness only to the song of the mocking bird, and there are persons, with ears attuned to nature's sounds, who find 'little to choose between the performances of these rival-songsters. The notes of the thrasher are clear and ringing, and can be heard upon a calm morning for the distance of a third of a mile. The thrasher takes to a tree top and there, lifting his head heavenward, he sings uninterruptedly, seeming to lose himself in the very passion of his music.

One morning in late April I heard a thrasher singing from the top of an omage orange tree. I lay down on the thrasher singing from the top of an osage orange tree. I lay down on the grass within the shadow of his tree perch, and listened to his song. The bird looked down upon me and sang and sang again. Almost uninterruptedly for ten minutes he continued his exquisite solo. I flattered myself that the bird was singing to me, but after a little there was a movement in the heart of the tree just below the soloist. I looked and there sat Mme. Thrasher drinking in the love notes of her lord.

BIRD MOTHER LOVE.

timid, save when the love of its offspring conquers its fear and makes it willing to dare any danger that threatens. Prof. Dearborn of the Field Columbia Museum caged a fledgling brown thrasher in order to save it from marauding cats. The cage was hung where the mother thrasher could see its baby behind the prison bars. The old bird flew instantly to the little one with food, and fed it daily between the cage wires until its charge was strong enough to fly and to sing defiance to Tom and Tobby. It is perhaps needless to say that the young one was released to join its parents the instant that its wing power was develoged.
In recent years the barn swallow (chelidon erythrogaster.) one of the commonest birds of the country districts. has been invading the cities.
The invading host is not large, but there is probably no great town in the northern United States which does not have "hawking" about its streets a few pairs of those birds, which formerly were seldom absent from the farm. As Bradford Torrey, the New England nature writer, puts its, many a business man has stopped suddenly in the crowded streets at the sight of a scurrying bird, which he recognized as a friend of his youthful days before he had left the countryside to turn his steps cityward.

WORK ACCOMPLISHED BY the feather was shed with the next moliting.

The swallow felt the sting of the shot and instantly turned and circled about the head of the bey, who fondly thought he was a spoluman. The bird turned and twittered within a few feet of the lads head and them few away. A week later the swallows had flocked preparatory to migrating. The sky overhead was black with them. The boy, still with gun in hand, walked down the country road. From out of the cloud of swallows one darted down and few round and round about the boy, chirping angrily. The swallow had hanging from its wing tip a broken feather. That incident left its impress. The shotgun was replaced by the opera glass, which, on the whole, makes a much more satisfactory field companion.
